THE WHAT: Experience how to blend ABCD with a range of powerful strengths-based approaches to community work and complementary methodologies to create powerful outcomes. Leave with practical tools & skills on how to:

- Focus on assets and strengths rather than deficiencies
- Discover ways to blend methodologies
- Apply strengths-based monitoring and evaluation
- Build effective partnership strategies
- Increase confidence in hosting group work
- Form powerful enquiries and proposals
- Explore group dynamics and decision-making

THE WHY: Many of the challenges faced by individuals and communities require transformational change, which can only be achieved by focusing on the strengths within. Tools to access these strengths include:

- Citizen & Community-led Initiatives
- Asset-based or Place-based projects
- Collective Impact & Action work
- Collaboration & Community Conversations
- Participatory Citizen's Juries & Budgeting, & more

THE HOW: Learn ways to weave, embed and sustain ABCD and other strengths-based and participatory practices through co-design and collaboration processes. We will show you how to move from dialogue to action and how to discover ways to address complex challenges via innovative solutions. Including:

- Asset-Based Community Development (ABCD)
- Results Based Accountability (RBA)
- Change and/or Social Labs
- Art of Hosting & Harvesting Conversations & Work that Matters
- Circle Methodology
- World Café
- Open Space Technology
- Appreciative Inquiry & SOAR
- Graphic Harvesting
- DEC Thinking & Breath Patterns
- Presencing & Theory U
- Next Stage Organising & Living Systems

"Imagine a meeting of 60 people, where in an hour you would have heard everyone and at the end you would have precisely identified the 5 most important points that people are willing to act on together." Toke Moller, Art of Hosting
